

From The Desk of Editor-in-Chief

We are glad to bring out the First Issue of JOURNAL OF APPLICABLE CHEMISTRY, 2012, Vol.1, Number.1. It is an Interdisciplinary Online Peer Reviewed Journal. Editorial Board comprises of Experts and Scholars in Chemical Sciences. The Journal covers articles on Chemical Education, Full Length Research Papers, Reviews and Short Communications dealing with areas in Chemistry such as, Analytical, Inorganic, Organic, Physical, Environmental, Pharmaceutical, Chemical Microbiology, Green Chemistry, Industrial, Agro Sciences and Nano-Chemistry.

Policy of the Journal of Applicable Chemistry (JOAC) is to bring Ultimate Application of the Research Work to innovative production techniques and to foster creative thinking in novel research fields. The Motive of the Journal is to uplift the Globe through Applicable Chemistry. We Publish Bimonthly Quality Research Papers after Peer Reviewing by a Panel of Referees drawn from India and Abroad. I hope that the Journal will be received by a wide circle of researchers, accepted by a large section of Chemists and receives quite a good recognition in Scientific Community.

Journal of Applicable Chemistry Is Dedicated to My Beloved Wife Smt. KAZA INDIRA DEVI.

My sincere reverance to All My Teachers
