EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Prof/Sir/Madam

SEASONS GREETINGS

On behalf of Editorial committee, I wish a very Happy and Prosperous New Year to the Referees, Authors and Readers of Our Online Journal. It crossed three years under the post-natal care of Advisory Board Members and Expert-Scientists for its Academic Health. I am delighted to place on Record; we published 17 Issues (including one Seminar Proceedings), containing around 650 Research Papers, Short Communications, Reviews and Chemical Education Articles. The website Viewers are about 90,000. I take this opportunity to express heartfelt gratitude for International and National researchers for their contributions and Referees for peer scrutiny striking balance between quality and content. Journal Of Applicable Chemistry continues to subscribe to interdisciplinary nature. It focuses on Chemistry (Analytical, Inorganic, Organic, Physical, Environmental, Agricultural, Medicinal, Marine sciences, Nano materials, Proteomics and Computer science any area that is related to application of Chemistry) to move forward in finding solutions to real life tasks of twenty first century.

Now, I invite manuscripts for the first Issue of new Year 2015 January, the first Issue of Volume Four. appreciate the untiring efforts of Mr. Kaza Kalyani Sekhar, Prof Suresh V. Chennupati, Executive editors and Bezawada Naga Krishna Vani, Additional editor for timely release of the bimonthly issues and quality monitoring with no compromise.

This journal is in memory of my better half Smt. Kaza Indira Devi.
