2018, 7 (1)

(International Peer Reviewed Journal)

EDITORS DESK

Let knowledge grow from more to more and thus human life be enriched

I invite your attention to the first issue of 2018 of JOAC. It is the seventh year of this interdisciplinary journal with an undercurrent of chemistry. Thanks to referees in India and abroad, from inner layers of my brain, for refining manuscripts with expertise in inter-disciplinary research and impeccable science publishing traits.

University Grants Commission (UGC), India accepted this journal in the selected list of publications under chemistry discipline in 2017. New features to surf through Facebook, twitter and LinkedIn through our web page are available now. The knowledge exploration and research through Google resource is another window to extend to 360° vision in the ocean of Knowledge Information/ Intelligent Data systems (Kids). The abstracts of e-proceedings of national seminar on “Solid Waste Disposal and Management to Protect Environment -Wealth from Waste” were published in fourth issue of 2017. This conference held on 4th June at Sri Siddhartha Pharmacy College, Nuzvid, AP was on the occasion of completion of five years of JOAC. The expert committee selected ‘Comparative account of Batch Reactor and Anaerobic Baffled Reactor in Methanogenesis of Spent Chrome Liquor’ (Vol.6 Issue 6 and PP.1100-1106) by Rakesh Kumar as best paper amongst research publications of year 2017.

The committed nature of Prof Suresh V. Chennupati, Executive Editor and Bezawada Naga Krishna Vani has consequence of retaining the status of JOAC in annals of regular periodicals by timely uploading of the journal issues. Our team is indebted to Kaza Kalyani Sekhar, the publisher for timely intellectual overview from all perspectives encompassing design to implementation. This additional chore is amidst his personal career as progressive software professional. The number of web viewers of this transient disciplinary e-journal crossed 0.2 million.

We thank Prof. G. Vidyasagar, Prof. S.T. Nandibewoor, Prof. R. Sambasiva Rao, Prof. Mandava V. Basaveswara Rao, Dr. A. Heidari, Prof. K. Ramakrishna, Dr. A. Veerbhadra Rao, Dr. Dittakavi Ramachandran, members of editorial committee for their unstinted academic input for taking the stature of journal to higher heights. I welcome Dr T S R Prasada Rao, Dr V Bharatam, R S Prasad on to the editorial board, Prof. R. Sambasiva Rao to be chief advisor, Prof. K. Ramakrishna, as advisor and Dr. G.Kishore as executive Editor.
