3rd International Conference on
'Artificial Intelligence in Chemical Biology and Environment'
June 5-7, 2020 (AICBE 2020)

Organized by
JOURNAL OF APPLICABLE CHEMISTRY, INDIA
(International Peer Reviewed Bi-Monthly Journal)
www.joac.info Estd. 2012
Venue: Shanghai, China

Scope of Conference

Papers are invited for Oral and Poster presentation from Academic, Research Institutes / Industrial laboratories in

- Expert Systems (Symbolic, Numerical)
- Knowledge Bases
- Computational Intelligence
- Machine Intelligence
- Chemical Biology
- Environment Monitoring
- Bio-Chemical Methods for Protection of Environment
- Solid Waste Management
- Medicinal Chemistry
- Nano Chemistry
- Computational Quantum Chemistry
- Pharmaceutical Chemistry
- Agricultural Chemistry
- Biochemical Methods of Plastic Waste Utilisation
- Economics of Waste Management

Journal of Applicable Chemistry

Journal of Applicable Chemistry was started in the Year 2012 under the stewardship of Professor Kaza Somasekhara Rao, as Editor-in Chief. It is an interdisciplinary Online International Peer Reviewed Bi-Monthly Journal. This journal publishes reviews, research papers, short communications, research pedagogy, chemical education and AAA (Advancement Application Announcement) in chemical sciences. Journal published conference papers on request.

Journal conducted - One National Conference at Nuzvid (2017).

Two International Conferences at SVRM College, Nagaram (2018), Visakhapatnam (2019).

The motto of Journal of Applicable Chemistry to disseminate the results in electronic format available on web to bring ultimate application of the research results, innovative production techniques and faster creative thinking in cross disciplinary areas to large number of academicians and researchers. The inner life-line of the Journal is to uplift the Globe through chemistry in action. This Journal, dedicated to Smt. Kaza Indira Devi, crossed eight years successfully.
