

Journal of Applicable Chemistry

2020, 9 (1)

(International peer reviewed Journal)

EDITOR'S DESK

Our hearty welcome to the first issue of 2020 of JOAC. This interdisciplinary journal in chemical sciences entered the ninth year. I am privileged to thank the elite chemists in our country and abroad to spare time in enhancing the quality and scientific rigor of manuscripts. The undercurrent of the effort is to probe into knowledge that changes knowledge opening a window in laying another path for truth seekers.

Under the banner of the journal, we Co-jointly conducted two international conferences during the last two years. Prof. Ms. Dhiraj Sud, Dept. of Chemistry, Sant Longowal Institute of Engg and amp; Tech (Deemed University), Longowal, Punjab is the recipient of best woman scientist award of 2019. It was conferred on Prof. Sud during Indian Council of Chemists, annual conference held at Jaipur National University, Jaipur in December 2019.

All appreciation goes our editorial team especially Dr. Gudipudi Kishore, Executive Editor and Smt. Bezawada Naga Krishna Vani for their untiring efforts to the release of journal issues on dot time. Kaza Kalyani Sekhar, publisher carved a niche for himself in the sustenance of this free-online-journal. Sekhar, a software manager, oversees the adherence to standard format, innovative upgraded output style and design of journal. The number of web viewers crossed two lakhs and fifty thousand.

This journal is in memory of my better half Smt. Kaza Indira Devi.
