

Journal of Applicable Chemistry

2023, 12(1)

(International peer reviewed Journal)

EDITOR'S DESK

In 2012, JOAC (Journal of Applicable Chemistry), an international journal of research in chemical sciences was started in memory of Smt. Kaza Indira Devi, wife of Prof Kaza Somasekhara Rao, former professor of Acharya Nagarjuna University, INDIA. This regular bimonthly periodical successfully completed twelve years and entered thirteenth year.

The editor-in-chief renders thanks to reverend research scientists in academia and industrial arena for sparing their academic time to do peer-reviewing the manuscripts in maintaining scientific rigor.

All appreciations go to our committed editorial team members especially, Dr. Gudipudi Kishore, and Smt. Bezawada Naga Krishna Vani, Executive Editors, for their concerted efforts for the timely release of the journal. Special thanks to the publisher K.Kalyani Sekhar, a software-professional. He is the backbone of structure stability and responsible for the new flashes of additions all through design of the journal.

The Annual best publication Award of 2022, as Judged by panel of experts, goes to Dr B.E.Basavarajappa, Dept of Chemistry, Bapuji Institute of Eng. & Technology, Davanagere, Karnataka, India. This is for his research paper (published in fourth Issue of 2022) entitled 'Synthesis of nanocellulose from groundnut huskin ionic liquid medium and its characterisation'.

The web viewers of JOAC exceeded three lakhs.
