In the year, 2012, an international journal of research in chemical sciences entitled "Journal of Applicable Chemistry", JOAC was started in memory of Smt. Kaza Indira Devi, better-half of Prof Kaza Somasekhara Rao, former professor of Acharya Nagarjuna University, INDIA. This regular bimonthly periodical successfully completed thirteen years and entered fourteenth year. My hearty welcome to the authors for the first issue of 2025 calendar year.

The editor-in-chief thank profusely from deep layers of the brain the international and national referees for sparing their academic time for reviewing the papers maintaining scientific rigor. The running force in the inner layers of knowledge ocean is to show the right position and extent of chemistry in universe of zillion energy transactions all through the time frame at least from big-bang event.

The committee make a note of its appreciations to our devoted editorial team members; Dr. Gudipudi Kishore, and Smt. Bezawada Naga Krishna Vani, Executive Editors. They put up concerted efforts for the timely release of the journal.

We tender Special thanks to K. Kalyani Sekhar, a software-professional whose functional role is journal publishing. His ingenuity is the backbone of the journal responsible for the new innovative add-on progressive design of the journal outlook. The web viewers of JOAC exceeded three lakhs (3,28,901).

The Annual best publication Award of 2024, as Judged by experts, goes to Santosh Kumar Srivastava, for the paper Synthesis and Investigation of Photophysical behaviour and antioxidant activities of Sulfamic acid catalyzed dimethyl-4-(4-hydroxy-2-oxo-2H-chromen-3-yl)-1H-pyrrole-2,3-dicarboxylate series
